

KORAH - I WILL HAVE IT - 11C

they have been destroyed in Korah's rebellion.

Numbers 16:1-3
Korah, Dathan, Abiram, and On turned against Moses. (Korah was the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi; Dathan and Abiram were brothers, the sons of Eliab; and On was the son of Peleth; Dathan, Abiram, and On were from the tribe of Reuben.)² These men gathered two hundred fifty other Israelite men, well-known leaders chosen by the community, and challenged Moses.³ They came as a group to speak to Moses and Aaron and said, "You have gone too far. All the people are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them. So why do you put yourselves above all the people of the Lord?"

Numbers 16:28-35,
Then Moses said, "Now you will know that the Lord has sent me to do all these things; it was not my idea. If these men die a normal death—the way men usually die—then the Lord did not really send me. But if the Lord does something new, you will know they have insulted the Lord. The ground will open and swallow them. They will be buried alive and will go to the place of the dead, and everything that belongs to them will go with them." When Moses finished saying these things, the ground under the men split open. The earth opened and swallowed them and all their families. All Korah's men and everything they owned went down. They were buried alive, going to the place of the dead, and everything they owned went with them. Then the earth covered them. They died and were gone from the community. The people of Israel around them heard their screams and ran away, saying, "The earth will swallow us, too!" Then a fire came down from the Lord and destroyed the two hundred fifty men who had presented the incense.
